Comes the United States, by and through Assistant United States Attorney, Harold B. McDonough, and would show as follows:

On April 18, 2013, counsel for defendant, Jose Solis Acosta, filed a pleading (DE 44) certifying his readiness for trial. On April 25, 2013, counsel for defendant Rameriz-Rico filed a Motion to Sever Co-Defendants (DE 45), since co-defendant Alberto Ruiz has not yet been arrested.

Pursuant to the Court's instruction on March 22, 2013, undersigned counsel for the United States has conferred with defendants' attorneys and determined that August 6, 2013, is an agreeable date for trial.

The United States therefore moves the Court to set the matter for trial on August 6, 2013. If defendant Ruiz has not been arrested by that date, the United States will move to sever him in
